Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2018069001A1] The invention relates to a protection method for a pressure vessel assembly having a pressure vessel (9, 12, 15) and having an electrically insulating section (11). According to said protection method, a contact guard (17) is arranged in front of the electrically insulating section (11) in order to prevent direct access to the electrically insulating section (8).
