Abstract (en)

[origin: CA2952729A1] The invention relates to a gaming device comprising a game wheel for obtaining a result of the game, said game wheel being mounted so as to be rotatable about a wheel axis. An electrically actuated screen associated with the game wheel is disposed at least in part within the circumferential contour of the game wheel when viewed in the viewing direction of the wheel axis. The screen is placed in front of the game wheel and covers part of a game wheel surface which faces a location for operating the gaming device.
