Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2018059753A1] The invention relates to a container handling system (10) comprising a plurality of handling stations (11, 16, 18, 20) for containers (28). According to the invention, the handling stations (11, 16, 18, 20) are arranged next to one another and above one another. The container handling system (10) comprises at least one conveyor (22) for the containers (28), which has a horizontal and a vertical transport direction and is designed to supply the handling stations (11, 16, 18, 20) with containers (28) and/or to discharge the containers (28) from the handling stations (11, 16, 18, 20).
