Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2018106114A1] Windowpane with multiple glazing comprising a first glass panel, a second glass panel and a cavity arranged between the first glass panel and the second glass panel. The first glass panel comprises a first sheet of glass having a first coefficient of expansion and a second sheet of glass having a second coefficient of expansion differing from the first coefficient of expansion. A bonding surface of the first sheet of glass is bonded to a bonding surface of the second sheet of glass at a bonding temperature.
