Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2018189748A1] This invention discloses a device for mounting glass panel(s) comprising mounting clips whose length ratio with glass panel ranges between 0.03 and 0.4. Multiple designs of the mounting clips are disclosed for holding multiple glass panels and securing glass panels on mounting surface having two adjacent planes. The invention also discloses a method of installing glass panels using one or more mounting clips and mounting accessories.
