Abstract (en)

A garment 100 may be an undergarment, an overgarment, an item of swimwear etc. The garment 100 includes a first zone of compression 118 which encircles the user around the upper legs and lower pelvis. During use the first zone of compression 118 provides compression to the pelvis of the user to help manage pelvic instability. The garment 100 further includes a second zone of compression 134 for supporting a baby bump of a pregnant user.
