Abstract (en)
[origin: EP3617425A1] Buried swimming pool, comprising a swimming pool body (10) and a device storage chamber (20), wherein the device storage chamber is fixedly connected to the swimming pool body; and a maintenance entrance (21) is arranged at a top end of the device storage chamber, and a maintenance door (30) is mounted at the maintenance entrance. By arranging a device storage chamber fixedly connected to a swimming pool body and providing a maintenance entrance on the device storage chamber, electrical components of the swimming pool can all be placed in the device storage chamber, such that when maintenance is needed, maintenance personnel can enter the device storage chamber from the maintenance entrance, which is convenient for maintenance.
