Abstract (en)
[origin: EP3643638A1] Transport unit (10) for products (P) comprising a pallet (1) or similar supporting structure and a series of supports (2) stacked on top of one another, arranged on which are said products (P) and which are carried by said pallet (1). Said supports are constituted by trays (2), which contain said products (P) and are stacked on top of one another, said trays each comprising a bottom (22), on which said products rest, and side walls (24), which surround said bottom (22) and have a small height with respect to said products (P), so as to render visible a prevalent part of said products (P). Said unit (10) comprises at least one covering panel (4) that covers at least one side of said stack of trays (2) and leaves, instead, exposed at least one side (A1) for display of said products. Said trays (2) are each provided with corner protections (28) at least on said side (A1) for display of said products.
