Abstract (en)
[origin: KR20190062144A] Disclosed is a sound output apparatus which comprises: a plurality of loudspeakers; and a main body for receiving the plurality of loudspeakers. Each of the plurality of loudspeakers includes: a sound transformation unit for generating a sound wave; and a sound guide unit for directionally outputting the sound wave via a plurality of openings. A diameter of each of the plurality of openings can be increased as a distance from the sound transformation unit increases.
