Abstract (en)
A foot cover in accordance with an embodiment includes: a main body part including a sole part which covers a sole and a heel part which covers a heel; and a nonslip part provided on an inside of the heel part which inside faces a back surface of the heel, the nonslip part having elasticity lower than that of a cloth of the heel part. The nonslip part includes strip-shaped parts which prevent the cloth of the heel part from expanding and contracting in a vertical direction and a horizontal direction.
