Abstract (en)

[origin: EP3736485A1] A lamp including an automatic mounting device as well as the application thereof is provided. The lamp (100) comprises a lamp body (20), a support body (10), and at least one automatic mounting device (30). The automatic mounting device (30) is used for detachably mounting the lamp body (20) on the support body (10). According to the lamp (100), during the process of mounting the lamp body (20) on the support body (10), barehanded operation of an installer is allowed, thereby improving the mounting efficiency of the lamp (100), and reducing the labor costs.
