Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2019175095A1] An installation for producing a technical net (90), a method for producing a technical net (90), and a technical net (90) are described. The installation (10) has at least one tape production unit (12) and a knitting machine (20), wherein the tape production unit (12) is configured to produce an endless webbing (92). The knitting machine (20) has at least one belt webbing feed unit (22), which is configured to feed webbing (92) provided by the tape production unit (12) to the knitting machine (20). The knitting machine (20) also has at least one knitting device (46) for knitting a thread group together with a webbing portion of the fed webbing (92) to produce a technical net (90) with intersecting webbings (92) and knitted tapes (94).
