Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2019242997A1] The invention relates to polyurethane- and/or polyorganosiloxane-copolymer compounds and the salts thereof which contain carbodiimide structural units of the formula (I). The invention further relates to a process for the preparation thereof, to precursors for the preparation thereof, and to reactive compositions which contain such precursors and to their use for treating or finishing fibers, including hair and wool, and for permanently finishing, treating, impregnating textiles and leather or synthetic leather and other fibrous materials as well as sheet materials and paper.
