Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2020089049A1] The present disclosure relates to an aerosol-forming article (1) comprising an aerosol-forming substrate (2) and a terminal filter element (5) at a downstream axial end of the article/consumable. The terminal filter element comprises a hollow bore (15) extending from an upstream axial end of the terminal filter element to a downstream axial end of the terminal filter element. The hollow bore is off-set from the axial centre of the terminal filter element.
