Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2020216532A1] A knitted velour fabric (10) is proposed, which has a top side and a bottom side (11), wherein the top side comprises a pile and the bottom side (11) comprises a warp-knit made from at least one pile material (3) and a base material. The at least one pile material (3) in the warp-knit is in the form of at least one pile yarn (3) and the base material in the warp-knit is in the form of at least one base yarn (1, 2). Furthermore, the pile includes the at least one pile material. The at least one pile material of the pile has individual fibrils with a fineness of at most 2 dtex per fibril.
