Abstract (en)

A window or door covering 10 comprising an attachment arrangement 11. The attachment arrangement 11 comprises at least one attachment element 13 insertable between the beading and the glazing of a window or door 12. At least one guide 14, 15 is in engagement with the attachment element 13 such that the at least one attachment element 13 attaches the at least one guide 14, 15 to the window or door 12. A rail connecting element 29, 29a is provided for attaching rail members 30, 31, 32 of a window or door covering, or a portion thereof, to the guides 14, 15 and/or the attachment elements 13. The attachment arrangement 11 may attach a window or door covering 10 to a window or door 12 without the use of adhesive or mechanical fixings such as screws or the like which permanently damage portions of the window or door 12.
