Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2021083710A1] The invention relates to a device for removing liquid for a motor vehicle, comprising a roof body (12) for the motor vehicle and a roof hatch device (14), which is arranged in the roof body (12). A liquid removal line (20), which is connected to the roof hatch device (14), leads to an outer surface (18) of the roof body (12). The device can simplify the mounting of the roof body (12) on the vehicle body.
