Abstract (en)
A liquid-discharging partition plate (10) for a dryer (100), and a dryer (100). The liquid-discharging partition plate (10) comprises a liquid guide recess (21); an inlet (211) of the liquid guide recess (21) and an outlet (212) of the liquid guide recess (21) are respectively located on two sides of the liquid guide recess (21) along the length direction. The liquid-discharging partition plate (10) also comprises a flow-diverting recess (31), which is located on at least one side of the liquid guide recess (21) along the width direction and which communicates with the liquid guide recess (21) by means of liquid-passing openings (22).
