Abstract (en)

A packed installation kit (100) for use in the installation of a roof window system comprising two window units, said installation kit (100) comprising a number of installation assemblies (4, 5, 6, 7, 8) each including one or more components, where the components of a first set of installation assemblies (4, 5, 6, 7, 8) are accommodated in a first packaging (101) comprising a box shaped as a rectangular prism, preferably of corrugated cardboard, and the components of the first set of installation assemblies of the installation kit are accommodated in the first packaging either as they are or partially or entirely packed in a sub-packaging of cardboard or paper material. Components of some installation assemblies (6) act as positioning elements for components of one or more installation assemblies (5, 8) in the longitudinal, width and/or height direction of the first packaging (101).
