Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2021152334A1] An aerosol-generating material includes a plurality of strands and/ or strips of a tobacco material and a plurality of strips of amorphous solid material. The plurality of strands and/or strips of tobacco material and the plurality of strips of amorphous solid material each have a length of at least about 5 mm. There is also described an article including the aerosol-generating material, a pack of articles, a consumable for use in an aerosol provision system, a non-combustible aerosol provision system and various methods of producing an aerosol-generating material.
