Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2021159055A1] Aspects of the disclosure relate to an article carrier for packaging one or more articles and a blank for forming the carrier. The article carrier has a plurality of panels including a handle panel and opposed side panels. The opposed side panels are hingedly connected to opposing ends of the handle panel and are disposed about the group of articles on opposing sides thereof. A first side panel is adhered to one of the two or more articles and a second side panel is adhered to another one of the two or more articles to form a package.
