Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2022032487A1] The disclosure presents a first entity that obtains Analytics Subscription Information (ASI) via a configuration by a management entity or received from a second entity, wherein the ASI comprises allowed and/or restricted analytics information for a User Equipment and/or a group of UEs that are controlled by a second entity, wherein the allowed and/or restricted analytics information are used for controlling a third entity to interact with a fourth entity. The processor further provides the ASI to a third entity. The second entity obtains ASI and provides the ASI to the first entity. The third entity obtains ASI, and provides a subscription or a request or an unsubscribe request or cancelation request to the fourth entity. The fourth entity obtains, from the third entity, a subscription or a request or an unsubscribe request or a cancelation request, and sends a response to the third entity.
