Abstract (en)

The embodiments of the present disclosure relate to a meeting minutes interaction method and apparatus, a device, and a medium, the method comprising: receiving a meeting minutes interaction trigger operation of a user in a meeting minutes display interface, meeting audio and video, meeting subtitles of the meeting audio and video, and meeting minutes being displayed by the meeting minutes display interface; and, on the basis of the associated time period of the meeting minutes, playing the meeting audio and video, and highlighting the associated subtitles of the meeting minutes in the meeting subtitles. By employing the present technical solution, by means of a meeting minutes interaction trigger in the meeting minutes display interface, the user can implement associated interaction of related content in the meeting audio and video and the meeting subtitles, improving the effects of the user interaction experience; the associated interaction between the meeting minutes, the meeting audio and video, and the meeting subtitles enables the user to have an intuitive understanding of the relationship between the three, helping the user to accurately understand the meeting content.
