Abstract (en)
The invention relates to a carbon-powder-containing fiber that contains a plant-derived carbon powder in the fiber, the carbon powder having a specific surface area of $250 \text{ m}^2/\text{g}$ or larger and smaller than $500 \text{ m}^2/\text{g}$, and a content of the carbon powder relative to the mass of the carbon-powder-containing fiber being 0.2 to 7% by mass.
