Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2022194538A1] The invention relates to a piece of furniture (1) comprising a furniture carcass (2), on which at least one sliding door (3, 4) is held so as to be movable via at least one running part along a running rail, and a guide rail (7) which is fixed to the furniture carcass (2) and along which at least one guide part (11, 30) held on the sliding door (3, 4) is movable, wherein the guide part (11, 30) is held in a displaceable manner on a mounting element (15, 15', 15'') which is fixed to the sliding door (3, 4), wherein the guide part (11, 30) is held in a clamping manner at the mounting element (15, 15', 15'') by means of at least one clamping element (16, 16', 16''). A stable guide can be ensured by the clamping in place the guide part (11, 30) at the mounting element (15, 15', 15''), thereby preventing rattling noises.
