Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2022218473A1] The disclosure relates to a dosing pump for integration into a container. The dosing pump comprises a pump housing with a pumping chamber and further comprises a pump inlet and a pump outlet. The pumping chamber is delimited by a pumping chamber base and an elastically deformable pumping dome. The pump housing is formed by joining at least a first pump housing piece and a second pump housing piece. The pumping dome is part of the first pump housing piece, and the pumping chamber base is part of the second pump housing piece. The disclosure further relates to a container comprising a dosing pump and to an associated product dispenser.
