Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2022268246A1] The invention relates to a front panel (1) for a furniture body, which front panel allows an end face of movable furniture parts (4), which end face is provided with a handle bar (5), to be gripped from behind, and which front panel has a chamber (9) for accommodating an illuminant (10). The single-piece front panel (1) has a wall (7) curved multiple times, a first end portion (8) of which supports the chamber (9) comprising a light exit opening (12), and a base (22) is connected to the other end of the wall (7), which base at least jointly forms a channel (30) with a second end portion (14) of the curved wall (7) and a mounting plane (20).
