Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2023007389A1] A pedal assembly for a vehicle is provided. The pedal assembly includes a base defining a pivot axis. The pedal assembly further includes a pedal coupled to the base. The pedal includes a carrier and a shell coupled to the carrier. The carrier is coupled to the base and pivotable relative to the pivot axis. The shell is moveable relative to the carrier between a first position and a second position. The pedal further includes a linkage adapted to secure the shell relative to the carrier in the first position or the second position.
