54 Photoresist compositions.

57 By including compounds represented by one or more of the following general formula:

in a conventional photoresist composition comprising a cyclized product of conjugated diene polymer or copolymer and a photo-crosslinking agent soluble in an organic solvent, an image having a high degree of resolution and only a small number of pinholes can be obtained, even when a base board having a surface of a high reflectance is used.
