(54) Tool holder.

(57) A suspension holder for tool shafts and the like, comprising a carrier plate having a U-recess for receiving the shaft and an overlying rubber plate having a slightly smaller U-recess so as to project inwardly over the edges of the U-recess of the carrier plate. A combined friction and clamping holding action is obtained when the shaft is lifted into the recess of the rubber plate so as to bend the projecting edge portions thereof upwardly.
