⑤④ Support for extractable grid shelves.

⑤⑦ The invention provides a sliding support for extractable grid shelves in an oven cavity provided with pairs of horizontal guide elements (5) affixed to its side walls. Each support is in the form of an L-shaped profile member adapted to engage said guide elements and one rim portion (9) of a grid shelf (4). On extraction of the grid shelf, the support is able to slide along the guide elements so as to project forwardly therebeyond for supporting the grid shelf in a cantilevered horizontal position substantially outside of the oven cavity.
