Improved grounding circuit for moving coil pickup cartridge.

A pickup cartridge of the moving coil type including a magnetic circuit having, in series, an armature (3) with which the coil (2) is associated, a pole-piece (4), a rear yoke (9), a magnet (8), and a front yoke (10). The improvement constitutes grounding magnetic circuit at either end part of the series magnetic circuit, the grounding point being on the front yoke farthest from the armature or on the surface of the armature.
