㉚ Improvements in business forms sheet assemblies.

㉛ This invention is concerned with a business forms assembly of the kind sometimes referred to as a 'snap out set' and has particular reference to that kind of assembly to be fed through a print unit. The assembly comprises a plurality of interleaved sheets (1, 5, 6) secured together at or adjacent one edge by adhesive (2) to form a stub and each of the outer sheets (5, 6) of the assembly extend beyond the intermediate sheet (1) or sheets (1) and are secured together (8) between the stub edge and the leading edges of the extended sheets (5, 6) to provide a means for feeding the interleaved sheets (1) into and through a print unit.
