⑯ Catapult play feature for a pinball machine.

⑯ A play feature for a flipper-type pinball game consisting of a lever arm (13) having a first end supporting a ball receiving cup (35) and a second end pivotably linked to the plunger (9) of a solenoid (7). A midpoint of the lever arm is pivotably secured to a bracket (5) supported from the bottom surface of the playfield. A catapult-like device results whereby a ball located in the cup will be hurled across the playfield by the pivoting movement of the lever arm when the solenoid is energised.
