㉓ Speaker unit casing structure.

㉔ Disclosed is a speaker unit casing structure including a speaker unit support of a high-rigid material. To prevent radiation of the resonance sound from the rigid parts of the speaker system, the high-rigid material parts of the speaker unit and the speaker unit support are covered with a sound absorbing material (3a), and the covering of the sound absorbing material is covered with a sheet (3b) of sound barrier material which is characteristic of an increased acoustical loss.
