(54) Portable air musical instrument provided with keyboard

(57) Portable air musical instrument (1) provided with keyboard (40), comprising a resonance box (5) with ventilation openings (47) and at least one portion (6) with keyboard configuration (40), a compartment (15) for the accumulation of pressurised air inside the resonance box (5) that communicates with it by means of cells (18) provided with at least one inlet (19) intersected by a vibrant reed (20) and at least one outlet (21) for the passage of pressurised air to the resonance box (5) and a sequence of keys (40) cinematically connected by means of a small arm to a pad (45) designed to open or close an air outlet. The instrument is also provided with adduction means of pressurised air to the accumulation compartment (15) that can be connected to at least one external source of pressurised air to cause the vibration of one or more reeds at a time, each of them generating a different musical note when the corresponding key is pressed.

CLAIMS INCURRING FEES

The present European patent application comprised at the time of filing more than ten claims.

- ☐ Only part of the claims have been paid within the prescribed time limit. The present European search report has been drawn up for the first ten claims and for those claims for which claims fees have been paid, namely claim(s):
- ☐ No claims fees have been paid within the prescribed time limit. The present European search report has been drawn up for the first ten claims.

LACK OF UNITY OF INVENTION

The Search Division considers that the present European patent application does not comply with the requirements of unity of invention and relates to several inventions or groups of inventions, namely:

see sheet B

- ☐ All further search fees have been paid within the fixed time limit. The present European search report has been drawn up for all claims.
- ☐ As all searchable claims could be searched without effort justifying an additional fee, the Search Division did not invite payment of any additional fee.
- ☐ Only part of the further search fees have been paid within the fixed time limit. The present European search report has been drawn up for those parts of the European patent application which relate to the inventions in respect of which search fees have been paid, namely claims:
- ☒ None of the further search fees have been paid within the fixed time limit. The present European search report has been drawn up for those parts of the European patent application which relate to the invention first mentioned in the claims, namely claims:

1-4

The Search Division considers that the present European patent application does not comply with the requirements of unity of invention and relates to several inventions or groups of inventions, namely:

1. claims: 1-4

A portable air musical instrument comprising one adjustment valve for the pressurised air flow.

2. claims: 5,6

A portable air musical instrument comprising a register composed of a multiple lever transmission system.

3. claims: 6,7

A portable air musical instrument characterized by the fact that each cell belonging to the same row can be simultaneously intercepted or covered by the corresponding through hole cursor.
