(54) Remote fastener presenter

(57) A remote fastener presenter (16) includes a fastener storage module (18) and feed tube assembly (20), which deliver a fastener from the fastener storage module (18) to the remote fastener presenter (16) for loading into a fastening tool (14). The fastening presenter includes a translating module that receives the fastener and orients the fastener between a first orientation and a second orientation that is appropriate for loading into the fastening tool.
