(54) METHOD FOR TRANSFERRING DESTINATION USER PART UNAVAILABLE MESSAGE

(57) The invention applies in the field of communications. A method for transmitting Destination User Part Unavailable message includes: signaling-point-transmitting, by an Application Server Process, a received DUPU message, if the Application Server Process is a signaling transfer point. The invention enab-les the Destination User Part Unavailable message to be notified to non-adjacent signaling point from SGP.
