(54) Sheet for wrapping flowers

(57) The invention relates to a sheet for wrapping bunches of flowers and the like. The object of the invention is now to provide a sheet for wrapping bunches of flowers and the like, which fits well round the stems of the bunch of flowers for wrapping. According to the invention this object is achieved with a sheet characterized in that a bottom edge is provided with a recess for receiving the stems of the bunch of flowers or the like.

FIG. 1

Description

[0001] The invention relates to a sheet for wrapping bunches of flowers and the like.

[0002] It is generally known to wrap bunches of flowers, pot plants and the like for protection thereof during transport from the place where the bunch of flowers or the like is purchased to the place of destination. 5

[0003] Bunches of flowers and the like are usually used as gift. It is therefore usual to wrap bunches of flowers in an attractive manner, so as to thus impart added value to the gift. 10

[0004] The object of the invention is now to provide a sheet of the type specified in the preamble, which fits well round the stems of the bunch of flowers for wrapping. According to the invention this object is achieved with a sheet as characterized in claim 1. 15

[0005] The invention will be further elucidated in the following description with reference to the accompanying figures. 20

[0007] Figure 1 shows a sheet 10 according to the invention for wrapping bunches of flowers and the like.

[0008] A recess 14 is arranged on the bottom edge of sheet 10, whereby the sheet fits well round the stems of the bunch of flowers for wrapping. 25
