(54) Modular walling solution

(57) A modular walling system for enhancing insulation of an existing wall. Wall panels are arranged in front of the wall and extend the full height and width of the wall, with a void formed between the panels and the wall. A compressive force is applied to the wall panels to bias them together and against a bordering structure, thereby sealing the void behind the panels. The biasing devices providing the compressive force allow bidirectional movement of the wall panels.
