(54) Barbershop/Hair salon cut fabric

(57) Disclosed is a barbershop/hair salon cut fabric (100), including: a panel member (103) formed of a fabric or synthetic resin, and defining a wearing hole (103a) in a rear end thereof in which a head of a patron is received; and a transparent window member (110) detachably coupled by means of a frame member to the panel member such that a portable terminal (101) is viewable at a front of the wearing hole (103a) of the panel member at a center.

According to this structure, the transparent window (110) detachably provided on the barbershop/hair salon cut fabric (100) may be used in order to use the portable terminal (101) during a hair dressing process, the portable terminal may be installed on a mount of the transparent window detachably provided on the barbershop/hair salon cut fabric in order to dispose the screen of the portable terminal at an anatomically comfortable position for a barbershop/hair salon patron so that the terminal may be used without impeding a hair dressing process, and the transparent window provided detachably on the barbershop/hair salon cut fabric may be used, so that the transparent window may be separated and washing may be performed, regardless of the material of the transparent window, in order for washing to be easy and so that a barbershop/hair salon cut fabric that is clean may always be provided.
