(54) Supplementary garment and layering clothing system

(57) An object is to provide a supplementary garment for additional layering with a five-layer (1 - 5) construction of clothing to supplement functions of outer two layers. The supplementary garment for layering includes a first supplementary garment (10) worn directly inside an outer garment (5) that is the outermost layer of the five-layer construction, so as to form a six-layer construction. The garment for layering further includes a second supplementary garment (20)worn directly outside the outer garment (5) so as to form a seven-layer construction.
