(54) ARRANGEMENT FOR AUTOMATED LOGICAL COUPLING TO TRAILER COMPARTMENTS

(57) The invention relates to an arrangement for correct delivery of goods, such as for instance bulk material, from a trailer to a storage facility such as for example a tank or a silo, wherein the correctness of the delivery is guaranteed in an automated manner, more in particular automated identification is used. The arrangement is provided with connection means and wireless communication means for achieving this.
